COMPETITION OBJECTIVES
As a leadership training and self-improvement activity, the Discussion Meet experience will:

- Develop leaders for effective problem solving through group discussion.

Professional speakers are those who have received a fee, royalty or honorarium for speaking (i.e., paid speaking appearances or speaking engagements) within 24 months prior to this annual competition. TOPICS FOR 2023 TFB DISCUSSION MEET

1. Production agriculture requires a lot of capital. Young farmers and ranchers face challenges gaining access to the capital they need to start or grow their operations. What tools are currently available, and what new programs could be introduced, to help young people access financial resources—and make sound financial decisions—to run their farms and ranches?

2. Working with elected officials, in all levels of government, is critical to advancing public policy that supports farmers and ranchers. How can Farm Bureau help elected leaders better understand the challenges of the agriculture sector and the importance of supporting the financial viability of America’s family farms and ranches?

3. What is sustainable agriculture and how can Farm Bureau help farmers and ranchers access market-based solutions that advance sustainability goals without restricting their ability to stock America’s pantries, help feed a growing population and maintain farm profitability?

4. Farmers and ranchers across the country are diverse in not only the goods they produce, but also in the ways they raise and market them. Farm Bureau’s role is to broadly represent all producers. How can our organization further welcome and engage diverse agricultural communities and cultivate dynamic future Farm Bureau leaders?

5. Agriculture uses water for everything from growing crops, raising livestock and moving products to and from farms and ranches. Water issues are often hotly debated, are unique to each region and can pose significant challenges to growers. How can Farm Bureau help address water management challenges and seek long term solutions for farmers and ranchers?

These questions will be used for the YF&R Discussion Meet held during the AFBF Annual Convention and the Collegiate Discussion Meet held during the AFBF YF&R Leadership Conference in 2024.
BACKGROUND INFORMATION

The Discussion Meet is a competition promoted by the Texas Farm Bureau Young Farmers & Ranchers (YF&R) Committee.

Farm Bureau’s strength depends on its members’ ability to analyze agricultural issues and decide on solutions that best meet their needs. The competition is designed to simulate a committee meeting where discussion and active participation are expected from each committee member.

As a leadership training and self-improvement activity, the Discussion Meet experience will:

- Stimulate logical thinking and a desire for accurate information.
- Develop a concise and direct manner of speaking.
- Improve the ability to listen.
- Aid the participant in overcoming timidity or stage fright.
- Assist the individual in giving and receiving criticism in a productive way.
- Teach the value of compromise.
- Develop leaders for effective problem solving through group discussion.

Applicants build basic discussion skills, develop a keen understanding of important agricultural issues and explore how groups can pool knowledge to reach consensus and solve problems.

A successful applicant is a productive thinker rather than an emotional persuader. He/she will assist the group in creating ways to implement the solutions discussed and highlight Farm Bureau’s involvement in those actions/steps.

The applicants will discuss pre-selected topics using four bases for the general discussion:

- Cooperation
- Constructive Criticism
- Problem Solving
- Communication
COMPETITION FORMAT

1. All competition facilitators and competitors will meet in the pre-assigned competition room 15 minutes prior to the start of the competition to receive last-minute comments by the room chair. At this time competitors will also draw for order for placement of their name tent/chair. Competitors not present at the time of the drawing will select from the remaining positions. The competition facilitators are TFB-designated room chairs and moderators.

2. Competitors may not take prepared notes in any form with them to the competition table. After all competitors have been introduced, notes may be written on the paper provided. If a note is brought to the table and is noticed by the competition facilitator, there will be a disqualification called at the end of the round by the Discussion Meet chair, the TFB YF&R Committee chair and/or the TFB coordinator.

3. The room chair will call the meeting to order, announce the topic to be discussed and introduce the timekeeper and moderator. Any competitor not present at this time will be disqualified.

4. The moderator will introduce the competitors and re-announce the topic to be discussed. He/she will give each of the competitors, in voluntary order, the opportunity to make a 30-second opening statement directed to the audience.

5. The timekeeper will flash a red timecard indicating when 30 seconds have elapsed and announce “time”. Judges may subtract points at their discretion for competitors who abuse the time limit.

6. The moderator will then indicate the opportunity for open discussion, which will continue for a total of 25 minutes during the opening rounds and Elite Eight round and 30 minutes during the Final Four round. The discussion should be directed to the fellow competitors.

7. The timekeeper will indicate to the moderator when five minutes of open discussion time remains. If the discussion is lagging, the moderator may close the discussion at this time.

8. The timekeeper will indicate to the moderator when 25 minutes in the opening rounds and Elite Eight rounds and 30 minutes in the Final Four round have elapsed with a red time card. The moderator will call for open discussion to stop for one minute of quiet time, allowing the competitors to compose a closing statement.

9. The moderator will give each of the competitors, in voluntary order, the opportunity to make a one-minute closing statement directed to the audience. The timekeeper will flash a red time card and announce “time” when the one-minute have elapsed.

10. The moderator will recognize the judges and request them to leave the room with the room chair to finalize the tabulation of their score sheets. Judges are not to confer with each other until the room chair has collected their tabulated score sheets.

11. The next round topic to be discussed will be announced (with the exception of the Final Four question). The Final Four question will be announced at the official Final Four Announcement.

12. The moderator will thank the panel and ask the audience to recognize their efforts. He/she will then ask the competitors to share their personal agricultural background with the audience.

BEST PRACTICES

1. TRAINING CALLS. All competitors are encouraged to join the training calls hosted by the AFBF YF&R committee in the fall. Specific dates and times will be announced in late summer. There will be a total of six calls, and each will last one hour. The first call will cover the Discussion Meet format and tips for success and the other five calls will focus on each question. Often times, the calls include industry experts, who share their expertise and provide additional resources.

2. UTILIZE GOVERNMENT RESEARCH. Search government agency websites and databases for strong statistics and data to use in your discussions. This information can be reliable and is well-researched.

3. LEARN FROM THE BEST. Reach out to former Discussion Meet and Collegiate Discussion Meet participants. Even though the discussion questions change each year, former competitors can provide valuable insight and tips on the nature of the contest. Also, reach out to YF&R staff and committee members that have familiarity on the competition to get clarification.

4. PROS AND CONS. Review each question and create discussion points from both sides of the issue. This will not only give you greater understanding of how an issue developed, but it will prepare you to discuss potential obstacles when working to find a solution.

5. DIVERSIFY WRITTEN SOURCES. Besides the internet, gather resources and information from the library, newspapers, magazines, Farm Bureau policies and other agriculture publications.

6. REAL TALK. Engage in conversations with your local county Farm Bureau members, state and national representatives, lobbyists and agriculture industry employees to gather information and examples. Seek conversations with those who are not familiar with the issue to gain their perspective. Explaining the topic helps provide practice articulating what you know. As you speak, address all angles to gather additional points and as many ideas as possible.

7. FARM BUREAU HISTORY. Take time to review county, Texas and American Farm Bureau history on the topic. What are our standing policies with the questions?

8. EXPERT OPINION. If you don’t have a personal relationship with the content of the question, find a credible source that does and get their opinion. Be prepared to cite and properly establish your source as an expert in their field.
HELPFUL HINTS FOR COMPETITORS

- Study as much material as possible relating to the overall topic. Sources: Internet; library; newspapers; magazines; Farm Bureau policies; county, state and American Farm Bureau publications; and conversations with experts or knowledgeable people.

- Remember this is a discussion, not a debate.

- Be prepared to ask questions, state facts and opinions, and urge others to be specific.

- Be aware of the audience, but generally address the panel. Speak loudly enough to be heard by the whole audience.

- Participate whenever your contribution will further the discussion. Do not monopolize the discussion.

- The discussion should not be “conversation” or aimless talk, nor should you take the role of a persuasive speaker. Try to cooperatively shed light on the problem and tentatively retain a flexible position.

- This is not a panel symposium wherein each participant, in turn, makes a presentation, with the moderator ending the session with a summary. Rather, it is an exercise in cooperative problem solving, with the questions, answers and statements coming from any person at any time. The moderator plays an inactive role during the discussion.

- Make notes of key points as the discussion proceeds for use in your summary statement.

- Use the one minute of quiet time to organize your closing statement.

- Stand and make your closing statement to the audience. Use accepted speech techniques and stay within the time limit.
