

EARLY AG TEACHER PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

Who: 1st-5th year agriscience educators in Texas

What: A two-day professional development opportunity that immerses teachers in hands-on classroom/laboratory instruction focused on areas addressed in an agriscience classroom (i.e., instruction, SAEs, and FFA). The professional development incorporates presentations by agricultural experts who specialize in education. It also includes site visits to area AgriLife Extension facilities, farms, and agricultural businesses for a truly hands-on experience.

Educators also will learn from Texas Ag in the Classroom staff and other education and agricultural experts.

Educators will receive information about classroom resources and other giveaways!

Cost: None

Lodging: Hotel will be provided for the night of June 3.

Note: Participants are responsible for making a reservation and paying for their lodging if they choose to come into Waco on June 2, 2024.
