

2025 TEXAS FARM BUREAU
YOUNG FARMER & RANCHER

FALL TOUR

COASTAL BEND ★ SEPTEMBER 4-7

2025 Fall Tour Agenda

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 4

3:00-5:00 p.m.

Registration
Hilton Garden Inn Victoria
123 Huvar St., Victoria, TX 77901

6:00 p.m.

Dinner & Entertainment – Franklin's Backyard Bayou

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 5

6:30 a.m.

Early Registration at Hotel

8:30 a.m.

BRC Ranch | Boling, TX
Breakfast & Ranch Tour
<https://brcranch.com>

BRC Ranch is a top tier seedstock cattle operation based in Texas, offering elite Brahman, Angus, and Hereford genetics. Founded in 2019, BRC combines tradition, innovation, and a passion for excellence to serve ranchers worldwide. With a focus on superior genetics, education, and integrity, BRC is shaping the future of the global beef industry.

10:00 a.m.

United Ag, Danevang Gin | Danevang, TX
Tour Cotton Gin & Bagging Operation
<https://unitedag.net/cotton-gins-warehouses.com>

United Ag operates two advanced cotton gins in Danevang and Hillje, processing over 2,400 bales per day with cutting-edge technology to preserve cotton quality. As a leader on the Gulf Coast, United Ag offers real-time cotton classification, moisture control, and efficient logistics through TELCOT and PCCA systems. They support growers with flexible marketing options, warehousing for 30,000 bales, and detailed variety recaps to guide future planting decisions. United Ag is committed to innovation, service, and supporting local farmers.

12:00 p.m.

Prasek's Family Smokehouse | El Campo, TX
Lunch
<https://praseks.com>

Prasek's Family Smokehouse began in 1974 when Mike and Betty Jo Prasek purchased Hillje Grocery in Hillje, Texas, driven by a passion for quality, service, and community. What started in a small home kitchen has grown into a Texas institution known for its handcrafted kolaches, smoked meats, and warm hospitality. Prasek's now boasts two expansive locations, a major meat processing facility, and a nationwide presence through wholesale and mail-order offerings. Prasek's continues to deliver unforgettable experiences rooted in tradition and Texas pride.

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 5 (continued)

2:30 p.m.

Bowers Homegrown Seafood | Palacios, TX

Shrimp Operation Tour

<https://homegrownseafood.com/home>

Bowers Homegrown Seafood is a third-generation family-owned aquaculture operation based on the Texas Gulf Coast. Founded in 1989 with just 13 shrimp ponds, it has grown into the nation's largest producer of farm-raised hybrid striped bass, red drum, catfish and Pacific white shrimp. The 433-acre Collegeport shrimp farm, supported by hatchery and processing facilities in Palacios, ensures full traceability and peak freshness. With deep roots in local communities, Bowers Homegrown Seafood blends tradition, innovation, and sustainability to deliver premium, responsibly raised seafood from pond to plate.

4:15 p.m.

Turtle Creek | Palacios, TX

Operation Tour

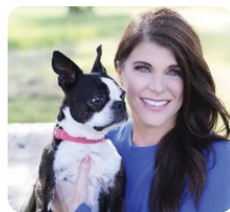

Turtle Creek Aquaculture is a family-owned redfish farm in Palacios that is dedicated to sustainable, science-based aquaculture. Founded in 2008 by Nasir Kureshy, the farm raises red drum in outdoor ponds while restoring surrounding saltmarsh to support healthy ecosystems. Their climate-resilient practices and local focus ensure responsibly raised, Texas-grown seafood for restaurants and wholesalers. Turtle Creek blends environmental stewardship with high-quality, traceable seafood from tide to table.

Speaker: Amy Nowlin

<https://matagorda.agrilife.org/coastal-marine-resources>

Amy Nowlin is the Coastal & Marine Resources Agent for Matagorda County with Texas A&M AgriLife Extension and Texas Sea Grant. She leads outreach and education efforts focused on coastal conservation, workforce development, and environmental literacy. With a background in public service, natural resource education, and emergency management, Amy also a certified Texas Master Naturalist and an active community volunteer.

6:30 p.m.

Briggs Ranches | Bloomington, TX

Operation Tour and Dinner

<https://briggsranches.com>

Briggs Ranches, established in 1942, is an historic South Texas cattle operation known for its elite Santa Gertrudis and Brangus genetics. Operating across three divisions, the ranch maintains purebred and commercial herds while preserving native wildlife and ranching traditions.

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 6

8:00 a.m.

South Texas Milling, Inc. | Inez, TX

Operation Tour

South Texas Milling, Inc. is a fourth-generation, family-owned business in Inez, Texas, with farming roots dating back to the 1800s. Founded in 2001, they use century-old stone grinding methods to produce over 50 all-natural products, from cornmeal and grits to specialty mixes and wildlife feed, all packaged on their farm.

9:30 a.m.

Hanslik's Homegrown Vegetables | Victoria, TX

Tour and Vegetable Picking

Hanslik's Homegrown Vegetables is a family-run farm in Victoria County. They grow a variety of fresh, seasonal vegetables including carrots, garlic, onions, and leafy greens. Founded in 2008 by Kenneth Hanslik, the farm emphasizes hands-on care, resilience, and sustainable practices.

11:30 a.m.

Chisholm Trail Heritage Museum | Cuero, TX

Lunch & Devotional

<https://chisholmtrailmuseum.org>

Step into the rich cowboy and ranching history of DeWitt County at the Chisholm Trail Heritage Museum in Cuero, Texas. Explore authentic artifacts, an original film on cattle drives, and exhibits on vaqueros, gauchos, and Native American culture. From 19th-century cattle drives to modern-day ranching, this museum brings the spirit of the Old West to life.

Tour Stop Option—Double J Saddlery or Double D Ranch

Attendees will have the opportunity to choose between two unique tour experiences: Double J Saddlery or Double D Ranch. Each group will spend approximately 1.5 hours at their selected location, allowing for a focused and immersive visit tailored to individual interests.

2:30 p.m.

Double J Saddlery | Yoakum, TX

Crafting Excellence Across Generations

<https://doublejsaddlery.com>

Founded in 1991 in Yoakum, Texas, Double J Saddlery spans three generations of expert saddle-makers. Built by riders for riders, their custom saddles and tack are designed with precision, using premium Herman Oak leather and in-house crafted saddle trees. From ropers to trail riders, every product reflects the same quality they demand in competition. More than just great saddles—they're a legacy of craftsmanship and community.

2:30 p.m.

Double D Ranch | Yoakum, TX

Western Style with a Bold Spirit

<https://doubledranch.com>

Rooted in Yoakum, Texas, Double D Ranch blends high-fashion flair with rugged Western heritage. Known for quality craftsmanship and standout designs, the brand has built a loyal following (#doubledaddiction) on social media. From collectible vintage jackets to modern statement pieces, their boutique on W Grande Ave is a must-visit for Western fashion lovers. Call ahead for hours or custom item inquiries.

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 6

4:30 p.m.

Spoetzl Brewery & Distillery | Shiner, TX

Dinner and Tours

<https://shiner.com>

Founded in 1909 in Shiner, the K. Spoet Brewery is the state's oldest independent brewery and home of the iconic Shiner beer. What began in a tin shed with old-world recipes has grown into a modern brewery and distillery producing award-winning beers and craft spirits. From surviving Prohibition to expanding across the U.S., Spoetzl blends tradition, innovation, and Texas pride.

SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 7

SAFE TRAVELS HOME!

Sponsored in part by Capital Farm Credit

2025 YF&R ADVISORY COMMITTEE

Hailey Hayes (chair)

Calhoun County

Alexis Hargrove

Bosque County

Sarah Roderick

El Paso County

Ryan Yeatts (vice chair)

Montague County

Emilee Haubner

Lampasas County

Jessi Schur

Hale County

Zack Altman

Hall County

Madalynn Kainer

Victoria County

Alyssa Sims

Montgomery County

John "Gus" Bluntzer

Nueces County

McCrae McCormick

Floyd County

Haley Clampit

Gonzales County

Zachary Mengers

Bee County

Sarah Galloway

Dallas County

Athlyn Roberts

Coleman County

