PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Welcome to Arlington, Texas Farm Bureau members! It's a wonderful time to gather at our annual meeting as we celebrate our 92nd year as the Voice of Texas Agriculture.

Our voting delegates will decide state policy positions for our organization, as well as recommend national policy resolutions to the American Farm Bureau Federation for consideration.

We will recognize outstanding achievements by county Farm Bureaus and individual members and elect our leadership.

We will enjoy a family fun night of bingo and sports-themed activities hosted by the YF&R Advisory Committee, as well as enjoy several guest speakers.

It's an exciting time to be part of a vibrant Texas Farm Bureau. Thank you for all that you do to contribute to our success.

Russell Boening
President

COUNTY ACTIVITIES OF EXCELLENCE AWARDS

The County Activities of Excellence awards recognize unique, volunteer-driven programming at the local level. Five counties were recognized by Texas Farm Bureau and American Farm Bureau Federation for innovative, action-oriented programs.

Visit the displays in the exhibit area to learn more about the activities. Each of these counties will receive cash awards.

Madison and Waller County Farm Bureaus

Madison and Waller County Farm Bureaus hosted Texas A&M AgriLife Extension agents from 18 counties for hands-on agricultural tours and discussions to build a stronger partnership between Farm Bureau and AgriLife Extension.

Hale and Swisher County Farm Bureaus

Hale and Swisher County Farm Bureaus launched a Young Farmer & Rancher Engagement Initiative to connect, engage, and inspire the next generation of agricultural leaders across a four-county area.

Houston County Farm Bureau

Houston County Farm Bureau hosted an Agricultural Law Seminar to equip Texas farmers, ranchers, and landowners with tools and knowledge to navigate legal challenges tied to rural land management.

2025 OUTSTANDING YOUNG FARMER & RANCHER TOP 3

The Outstanding Young Farmer & Rancher contest is designed to identify, recognize, and reward exceptional young farmers and ranchers from across the state. This contest gives young farmers and ranchers an opportunity to highlight the growth and development of their agricultural operations.

Layton and Jessi Schur

Layton and Jessi Schur have a direct-to-consumer retail store in Hale County, providing their community with fresh produce and beef from their farm and market garden. They also grow grain sorghum and cotton.

Colby and Ashley McClendon

Colby and Ashley McClendon grow grain crops and hay. They are the sixth generation to operate the family farm in Collin County. The couple also raise cattle and sell their beef through their on-farm meat market.

Colin and Joy Graff

Colin and Joy Graff grow hay and forage crops in Medina County that are sold to feedlots and exotic ranches across the state. They have a small Santa Gertrudis cow-calf herd and have a custom land clearing and ag equipment repair business.

2025 OUTSTANDING YOUNG FARMER & RANCHER FINALISTS

The finalists below round out the Top 8 Outstanding Young Farmer & Rancher Finalists. They were selected from across all 13 Texas Farm Bureau districts.

Travis Senn

Travis Senn grows hay and operates two poultry farms in Upshur County, where he raises over 900,000 broiler chickens annually. He utilizes the poultry manure to fertilize his hay fields and sells the excess litter to other farms.

Brantly Efurd

Brantly Efurd is a third-generation peach farmer and cattle rancher in Camp County. He manages over 13,000 peach trees and grows various fruits and vegetables that are sold at his family's farmers market, offering a farm-to-table experience.

David and Anna Volleman

David and Anna Volleman are dairy farmers in Comanche County. They milk over 5,000 cows and bottle a portion of their A2A2 milk in returnable glass bottles. They also grow corn, grain sorghum, and hay.

Zach and Savannah Hutka

Zach and Savannah Hutka grow corn, cotton, grain sorghum, and wheat in Milam County. They use sustainable practices to maintain soil health and optimize yields, while integrating technology with traditional methods.

Caroline Krenek

Caroline Krenek is a fourth-generation farmer who grows corn and cotton in Wharton County. She utilizes precision technology, such as drones, to maximize production on her farm. She also helps with her family's turfgrass farm.

2025 EXCELLENCE IN AGRICULTURE TOP 3

The Excellence in Agriculture contest recognizes young men and women ages 18-35 who are involved in agriculture but do not earn a majority of their income from an owned farm or ranch enterprise in the past three years.

Ryan and Madilyn Yeatts

Ryan Yeatts is as an operations analyst for Standard Meat Company, and Madilyn is an equine specialist and outside sales specialist with D&L Farm and Home. The couple raise sheep, sell produce at farmers markets, and have pecan and peach orchards in Montague County.

Sarah Roderick

Sarah Roderick is the events and outreach coordinator for AgSpire, where she works with farmers and ranchers to implement conservation and regenerative agriculture practices. She also raises cattle with her family in Presidio County.

Jacob and Laura Henson

Jacob and Laura Henson own a marketing agency and raise cattle. They grow produce to sell at farmers markets and help operate Laura's family's white-tailed deer ranch and silage harvesting business. Laura is an adjunct instructor at Tarleton, and Jacob owns a construction company.

2025 EXCELLENCE IN AGRICULTURE FINALISTS

The finalists below round out the Top 8 Excellence in Agriculture Finalists. They were selected from across all 13 Texas Farm Bureau districts.

Madeline Makovy

Madeline Makovy is the 4-H and Youth Development Agent for Texas A&M AgriLife Extension in McLennan County. She also raises livestock with Hard Times Cattle Company and helps manage her family's ranch, hay operation, and their wildlife and exotic herds.

Alexis Hargrove

Alexis Hargrove is a relationship manager in the Clifton Credit office for Capital Farm Credit. She is a third-generation farmer in Bosque County where her family grows row crops and hay. She also has her private pilot license.

Emilee Haubner

Emilee Haubner owns WCD Agricultural Management, mentors new farmers, and manages social media for ag businesses. She also raises commercial goats in Lampasas County, sells goat meat direct to consumers, and helps manage ranches.

Matthew March

Matthew March is a County Extension Agent for Agriculture and Natural Resources in Polk County. He also farms in Rosenberg, helps manage his family's ranch in Fort Bend County, and runs a custom baling business.

Madalynn Kainer

Madalynn Kainer is the assistant manager for the Washington County Fair. She oversees livestock shows, auctions and marketing while supporting all fair activities, including event planning and volunteer management.

AGRICULTURE IN THE CLASSROOM OUTSTANDING TEACHER

Dr. Michaelle Coker teaches biology, AP biology, and AP chemistry at Central Heights High School in Nacogdoches.

She earned a bachelor's degree from Texas A&M University, a master's degree from Stephen F. Austin State University, and her doctorate from both Texas A&M University and Texas Tech University. She has been teaching for 15 years, with the past three years at Central Heights High School.

Dr. Coker collaborates with Nacogdoches County Farm Bureau to integrate agriculture into her curriculum, utilizing innovative Ag in the Classroom resources and lessons to create engaging experiences for her students.

She also shares her expertise and resources with other educators through presentations at Texas Farm Bureau's Summer Ag Institute for K-12 educators and the National Agriculture in the Classroom Conference.

As the 2025 Texas Farm Bureau Agriculture in the Classroom Outstanding Teacher winner, Dr. Coker will receive a $1,500 cash award and a trip to attend next year's National Ag in the Classroom Conference.

2025 AFBF BOOK OF THE YEAR

Soil, gardening highlighted in accurate ag book designed for children, families

Readers can dig into all that the soil has to offer in The Soil in Jackie's Garden.

The engaging picture book introduces budding gardeners to the magic happening in their own backyards with visuals that open vertically to showcase the secrets beneath the surface of the soil.

Readers follow Jackie and her diverse group of friends as they meet pollinators, measure progress, and wait patiently for their plants to grow.

Facts are woven into the story, and engaging illustrations teach young readers about the life cycle of a plant, the natural processes that create new soil, and the role composting plays in the garden.

The Soil in Jackie's Garden

was written by Peggy Thomas. She will be in the Trade Show Exhibits signing copies of the book on Friday and Saturday.

One book per member-family for the first 500.
