

HOMESCHOOL EDUCATOR WORKSHOP

Hosted by Texas Farm Bureau x National Ranching Heritage Center

WHO CAN PARTICIPATE?

The National Ranching Heritage Center and Texas Farm Bureau Agriculture in the Classroom® are partnering to provide homeschool educators with a FREE, hands-on, immersive learning experience. This workshop is designed to demonstrate how agriculture can be effectively integrated into a homeschool curriculum and highlight valuable resources available to educators. Educators will participate in engaging, interactive presentations that offer practical ideas and tools for incorporating agricultural concepts into their teaching.

The opportunity also includes a Family Day on Saturday, November 21, to give students the chance to explore the National Ranching Heritage Center and participate in a variety of fun, educational, hands-on activities.

WHEN:

Friday, November 20 – Homeschool Educator Workshop

Saturday, November 21 – Family Day

WHERE:

National Ranching Heritage Center

3121 4th St, Lubbock, TX 79409

REGISTRATION AND DEADLINE:

This opportunity is free, and the registration deadline is November 2.

Participants are responsible for their travel and lodging if coming from a location other than the surrounding area.

Only the educator is eligible to attend on Friday, November 20. Children are only permitted to attend on Saturday, November 21. There is a limit of 50 people, so if your spouse would like to attend, each person will need to be registered separately. A waitlist will begin after the first 50 spots are filled.

A minimum of 15 confirmed attendees is required for the workshop to take place.

REGISTRATION LINK: <https://forms.cloud.microsoft/r/qvX5XJpN5L>

CONTACT INFORMATION: For more information, contact the TFB education team at edoutreach@txfb.org or call 254.751.2569.